

GROUP MOVIE COMPARISON ANALYSIS

1. What do the two versions have in common?
2. What are the most significant differences between the two versions?
3. Does one version adhere more closely to the novel than the other? Which choices or details show that?
4. Why did the screenwriters, directors, and actors make the choices they made?
5. How do the films impact the way I understand the characters and the story?
6. After watching the endings of both films, groups should gather to discuss their notes. Do they feel they can reach a conclusive answer to any of these questions within their group?
